The Creed of Pi Lambda Phi

That all men are created free and equal.

That no society of men can flourish unless members of that society are endowed with the opportunities and privileges of freedom.

That freedom implies the elimination of prejudice — that the elimination of prejudice means a better understanding twixt men.

That it is incumbent upon me to fight for such freedom even with my life.

That it is incumbent upon me in my personal life to be devoted to the highest standards of honesty and justice.

That because my country is dedicated to the highest standards of freedom and justice for all men of all creeds, I hereby pledge allegiance to my country, and to its national symbol."

The Brothers of the Florida Delta Chapter Dedicate the 1974 Pearl to:

BROTHER ROLAND FARRIS

DEDICATION

Earlier this year, Brother Roland Farris underwent open heart surgery to correct a hereditary heart condition. The manner in which Roland faced this very dangerous operation has amazed us all. His tremendous spirit, courage, and fortitude has been a continuous inspiration to his fellow brothers. It is for this reason that we, the Brothers of Pi Lambda Phi Fraternity, Florida Delta Chapter, proudly dedicate this journal to

Brother Roland Farris

We further wish to you, Roland, and to your family, happiness and good health in the years to come.

"From the Editor"

Dear Reader,

Before you, you hold the nineteenth edition of The Pearl. Started in 1955, The Pearl has now become the most widely circulated magazine on campus, and has won many awards. Since its inception, The Pearl has maintained three main functions. First, it serves as a remembrance for alumni. Secondly, The Pearl is a yearbook for active brothers. Lastly, it is utilized as a rush manual for prospective rushees.

To the alumni, The Pearl is essentially part of the story of a great tradition begun in 1925 when E. Max Goldstein founded the chapter under the name of Phi Beta Delta. The Pearl speaks to the alumni to remind them that Pi Lambda Phi is not for just four years. . . but for a lifetime.

For the active brothers, The Pearl recalls a year of good times as well as sad ones. The benefits of living together with friends and that sincere sense of belonging cannot be put down in words. Weekends, sports, parties, and just clowning around the house can be partially captured by a few photographs, but the real esteem lies in the hearts and minds of those who participated.

To the prospective rushees The Pearl is a picture of Pi Lambda Phi and the individuals that comprise it. We in Pi Lambda Phi believe in providing training and discipline of the individual who is seeking an education, desires to make himself a useful member of society, possessing knowledge, ability, and the capacity for accomplishment. Gone are the days of physical hazing. Those days have been replaced by an honest and sincere intent to learn how to live and work together in a mature and sensible manner.

Editing The Pearl this year has been a unique experience. I would like to acknowledge the invaluable assistance of my staff, whom without, this challenge would have been an insurmountable task. Further, I hope that you enjoy reading and looking through The Pearl as much as I have in compiling it.

Fraternally yours,

"BACKBONE OF PI LAM"

Paul Marks

It has been said that the present and indeed the future depend on lessons and advice from the past. Much of Pi Lam's success can be directly attributed to it's alumni and particularly to Brother Paul H. Marks. Brother Marks has truly been the backbone of an organization continually changing and progressing.

Paul Marks has been awarded the coveted "Big Pi" Award and was named as an Outstanding National Alumnus by the National Executive Board of Pi Lambda Phi. Brother Marks is also a Blue Key and is chairman of the Board of Flagler Federal Savings and Loan of Miami.

To us, Mr. Marks is more than a father, he is a constant source of devotion to our fraternity.

Dr. Stephen Feinstein

In his second year at the helm as faculty advisor, Brother Feinstein has been a great help in the administrative and financial aspect of the house. Having graduated in 1959, Dr. Feinstein is now doing research in underwater communication for the speech department.

Working in conjunction with Paul Marks this past summer, Dr. Feinstein arranged for the remodeling of the living room, TV room, alumni room, as well as the kitchen. The Brothers of Pi Lambda Phi are truly fortunate to have Brother Feinstein.

George Beck

Pi Lambda Phi's National Executive Secretary for the last seven years has been Brother George Beck of the University of Virginia Chapter.

There certainly is no one more welcomed at our house than "George". His friendly, casual attitude and capable management has made him a vital part of Pi Lambda Phi.

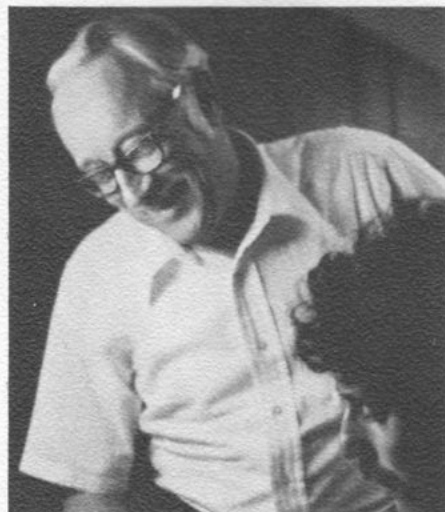

NOT FOUR YEARS . . .

Byron Salter

To be able to maintain a fraternity, one has to establish a sound financial foundation. To do that, the KOE must work in conjunction with our trusted accountant Byron Salter.

Mr. Salter has done more than his share as a consultant, he has taken a real interest in the Brothers. For these reasons, we decided to bestow upon him the highest honor we have. This year Mr. Salter was initiated into the Brotherhood. We salute you Brother Salter.

. . . BUT A LIFE TIME.

Scotty and LeRoy

Always seen, always heard, but never appreciated enough are Pi Lam's friendly employees: Durant Scott and LeRoy Tillman.

Keeping the Brothers well fed is Scotty's job, but that's not all he does, he's a friend as well. When he's not in the kitchen, Scotty can be seen playing pinball or cards with the Brothers.

LeRoy, in his 20th year with Pi Lam, keeps the house clean. Always with his smile, LeRoy battles dirty Brothers in keeping the house in shape.

SCHOLARSHIP

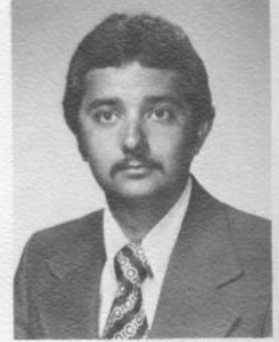

For over 50 years Pi Lam has led the University of Florida campus in academics. 1973-74 was no exception as Pi Lams again came through with excellent marks.

Leading the Lammies with a perfect 4.0 were Joel Manis, Bob Klausner, Evan Byer, Pete Ciporkin, Nick Aradi and Bruce Kleinberg.

Many other brothers added to Pi Lams superb record. They are Howard Sokol (3.8), Jon Saulson (3.7), Harold Smilovitch (3.7), Stuart Sacks (3.7), Don Silver (3.7), Richard Gilman (3.7), Josh Rodstein (3.6), Steve Seidler (3.6), Sammy Slom (3.6), and Sandy Chisholm (3.6). Close behind were Jeff Hochman (3.5), Bob Merlin (3.4), and Alan Rophie (3.3).

Consistently making over a 3.0 were Denis LaRoche, Jim Benjamin, Dan Aaronson, David Weiner, George Lipp and George Aradi.

Pi Lam's new brothers also distinguished themselves in the classroom led by David Arnold (3.6), Neil Freeman (3.5), Nathan Bertman (3.4), and Lewis Gornitz (3.4) followed by Chip McChristian, Keith Rosen, Mark Reisfield, Joe Hecht, Jim Multack and Curt Rosner.

Recognizing their responsibility, the Lammies proved that along with sports and social, they are the leaders in the classroom.

CAMPUS LEADERS

As Pi Lambda Phi has been a proven leader in academics and athletics, so too it is known for outstanding leadership in the realm of student affairs. Pi Lams are noted for outstanding contributions in virtually every area of the University.

Formost among Pi Lam leaders is Bob Klausner, President of the Interfraternity Council. Bob also served as Secretary of IFC, on ACCENT, and in the Student Government cabinet. In addition, Bob sits on a major University committee and has taken an active role in several SG political campaigns. For his service to the campus, Bob was named to Omicron Delta Kappa Honorary.

Sandy Chisholm is the leader among the younger Pi Lams. Currently, Sandy is IFC Social Chairman and was a campaign manager in the recent SG elections.

In the area of campus service, Pi Lams were found in countless areas. Rick Blau founded the Pre-Professional Service Organization (PSO) which has become an integral part of the University Medical Center. Because of this memorable contribution to the University in the PSO and the Student Senate, Rick was named to membership in Omicron Delta Kappa.

Numerous other Pi Lams are involved in service to the campus. Rick Gilman was named Director of IFC Frolics while David Tillis served on the Executive Board of the Fraternity Purchasing Association.

Stuart Sacks was named Vice-President of the Florida Players having served as both actor and production director. Jeff Hochman was elected Honor Court Justice and served as Public Relations Chairman for IFC.

New brothers Mark Wyatt, Jim Lazear, Curt Rosner, Jim Multack, and Barry Kay all participated in campus activities. They like the older brothers represent the spirit that has made Pi Lambda Phi one of the UF's most respected names.

SERVICE

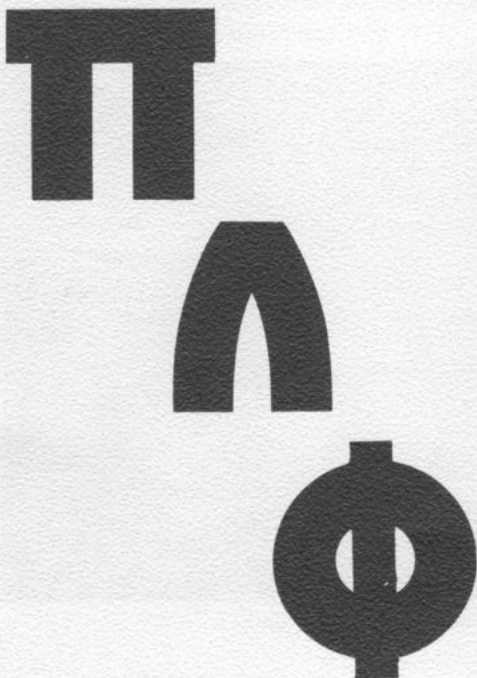

Within the insulation of the college community it is easy to ignore the problems which plague the world today. Pi Lams however have responded in an admirable manner to the needs of our community.

The most important and enjoyable project of the year is when the Lammies and the Sisters of Delta Phi Epsilon Sorority sponsored a Halloween Party for the underprivileged children of Carver Gardens. For the kids the party was an afternoon of games, refreshments and candy. For the Brothers it was a chance to make a child's life just a little happier.

That same night the Brothers and Pledges weathered an appropriately harrowing thunderstorm to collect candy for the crippled children at the Medical Center. By the end of the evening the drooping Lammies had collected 600 appetizing pounds of goodies!

The Lammies' spirit certainly wasn't dampened, as they continued their hard work throughout the year. Jon Saulson donated much of his time by helping to teach the emotionally disturbed children at P. K. Yonge, while Neil Freeman did volunteer work with SAMSON, and countless others donated to the IFC Blood Drive.

Along with Scholarship, Social and Athletic endeavors, Pi Lams have always shown a willingness and responsibility to serve the community.

ATHLETICS

A strong showing in every sport and back to back Orange League titles in raquetball and bowling made 1973-74 a good year for Pi Lam athletics.

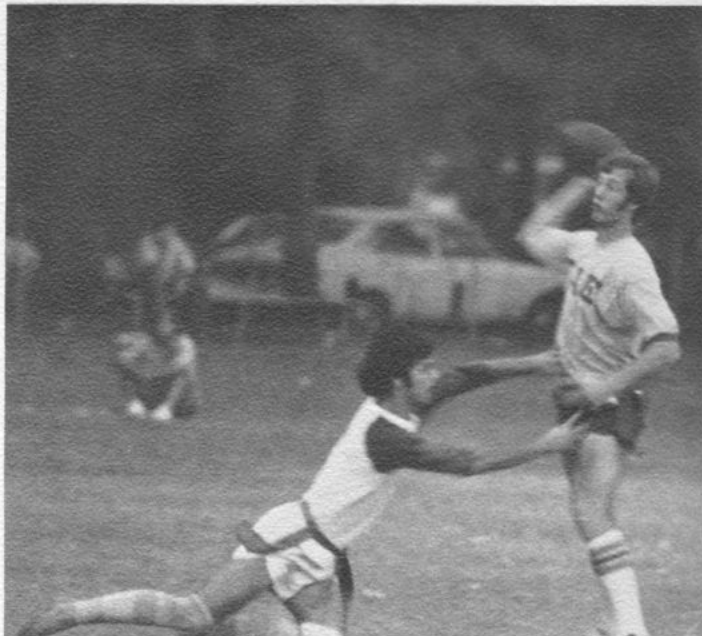

The track squad led off the season with a fourth place finish, highlighted by George Aradi's victory in the hundred yard dash. Other strong performances were turned in by Bob Merlin in the hurdles (4th place), the 440 yard relay team (3rd place) and the 880 yard relay team (3rd place).

Volleyball followed with a bracket victory and an overall second place finish. The veteran Pi Lam team was led by Rick Goldberg, Barry Meyerson, Mark Michelson, Louis Lippman, Nick Aradi and Joey Hecht.

The final sport of the quarter was football and the Lammies again captured second place. The offense was led by Josh Rodstein, Vic Alonso, George Aradi, Nick Aradi, Goldberg, Meyerson, and Lippman. The defense was led by Joe Jacoby, Bob Merlin and Sandy Chisholm. The standings at the end of Fall quarter showed Pi Lam in second place overall.

Winter quarter began with basketball and the winning spirit was continued, led by Goldberg, Meyerson, Michelson, and Lippman.

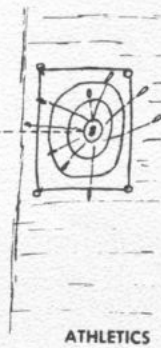

Raquetball was next and Pi Lam repeated as Orange League champions, completely dominating play. The Lammies were led by Lippman and Adelman in singles and Harvey Kornstein, Nick Aradi, Steve Seidler, Stuart Sacks, Alonso, Rodstein, and Michelson in doubles.

ATHLETICS

The bowling team avenged last years heart-breaking loss by defeating SAE for the Lammies second title. Pi Lam's youngest team was led by Steve Livingston, Terry Forman, Denis LaRoche, Henry Volpe, Joey Hecht, and Rick Gilman.

A superb winter quarter ended when the handball team finished with three wins and one loss. Standouts were Jon Saulson and Sheldon Frank in singles, and Sammy Slom, Dave Tillis, Lippman and Adelman in doubles.

With swimming, golf, tennis and softball on tap for Spring, Pi Lam appears headed for another spectacular season in athletics.

BEST SENIOR ATHLETE

LOUIS LIPPMAN

Seldom has there been a person to stand out above all the rest as our 1973-74 Best Senior Athlete — LOUIS LIPPMAN. "Louie" has been "The Man" in athletics for all four of his years as a Pi Lam. Everyone has looked up to him as the brother with the most knowledge, ability, and respect in all sports.

For the past two years, Louis has led us in the quest of the President's Cup. Since 1970, he has devoted much time and energy to develop our sports program. Louie was the top rated racketball and tennis player. He also played a vital part in football, basketball, volleyball, track, and handball in his four years as an active brother.

Louis' leadership, spirit, and ability will be remembered and greatly missed for many years to come.

PLEDGE CLASS OF '73

From the singing of the Lambskin to the day of initiation, the Pledge Class of 1973 was destined to become one of Florida Delta's outstanding.

Under the leadership of Pledgemaster Rick Gilman the baby lammies showed the 'Spirit of 73' as they took on functions and responsibilities inside and outside the house. Neil Freeman took over as editor of the Alumni Newspaper, Mark Riesfield was appointed chairman of High School Weekend, and Joey Hecht served as co-chairman of Pearl Weekend. Presently serving on Interfraternity Council are Barry Kay (Speakers Bureau), and Curt Rosner and Jim Lazear on Social Committee.

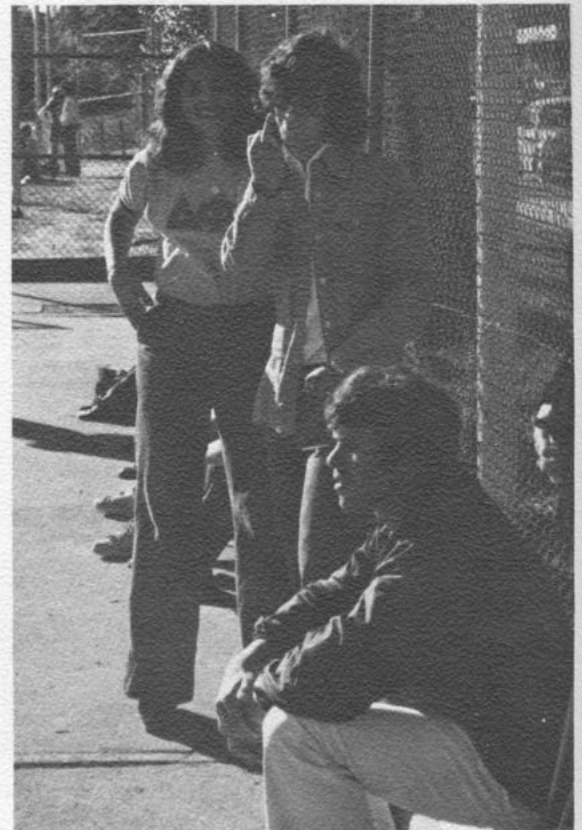

The Pledge Class made their mark in sports this year with Joey Hecht in volleyball, Sheldon Frank in handball, Steve Livingstone in bowling, and Doug Martin, Jim Multack and Mark Wyatt in swimming. Scholastically, David Arnold led the way with a 3.6, followed by Neil Freeman (3.5), Nathan Bertman (3.4), and Lewis Gornitz (3.4).

Officers for the Pledge Class were Rick Seidler, President; Kent Yokley, Vice President; Mark Kramer, Treasurer; and Luke Kushner and Jim Multack, Historians.

Following the rigors of Hell-week and the fabled Missions Night, forty members of the 1973 Pledge Class were bestowed the right of brotherhood and the honor of calling themselves members of Pi Lambda Phi.

NOSEBOWL '73

A Pi Lam Pledge Team has never come out of its Annual Nosebowl Game a loser. The Pledge Class of 1973 was no exception despite being on the short end of a 27-19 score.

The Pledges all won that day because they learned the meaning of Pi Lam Brotherhood. The actual game completed several weeks of hard work which established a bond not only in the Pledge Class itself, but also among the entire Brotherhood.

The game was a close, hard fought battle in which the outcome was obscure until the final gun. The baby Lammies took the lead in the opening period with a long touchdown pass from quarterback Joe Hecht to fullback Scott Saperstein. The lead changed hands several times during the game with Pi Lam scoring on two more touchdown passes from Hecht to Chip McChristian and Dave Milov.

Offensive standouts were Hecht, Saperstein, McChristian, Milov, Sheldon Frank, and Doug Martin. Standouts on the tough Lammie defense which contributed three interceptions were Steve Livingston and Bernie Smith along with Frank and Milov.

The purpose of the Nosebowl was admirably fulfilled by the '73 Pledge Team. The game was a team effort which involved every member in the Pledge Class whether he viewed the game from the field or the sidelines. The Pledges conducted themselves as gentlemen while displaying pride in themselves and Pi Lam. Despite the outcome, the Brothers took the Pledges into their hearts after the game for the spirited way in which they played. The scoreboard was easily forgotten by the Brothers, who realized the success of this Pledge Class equaled that of the other 12 Pi Lam Pledge Classes who were victorious in their Nosebowls.

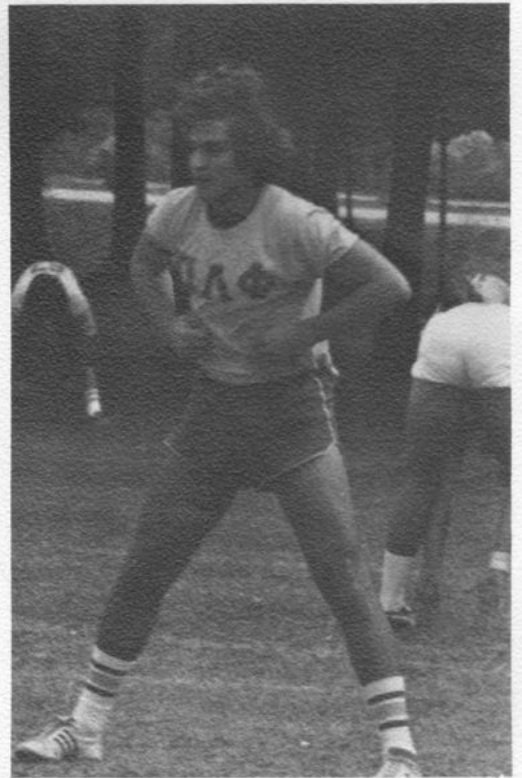

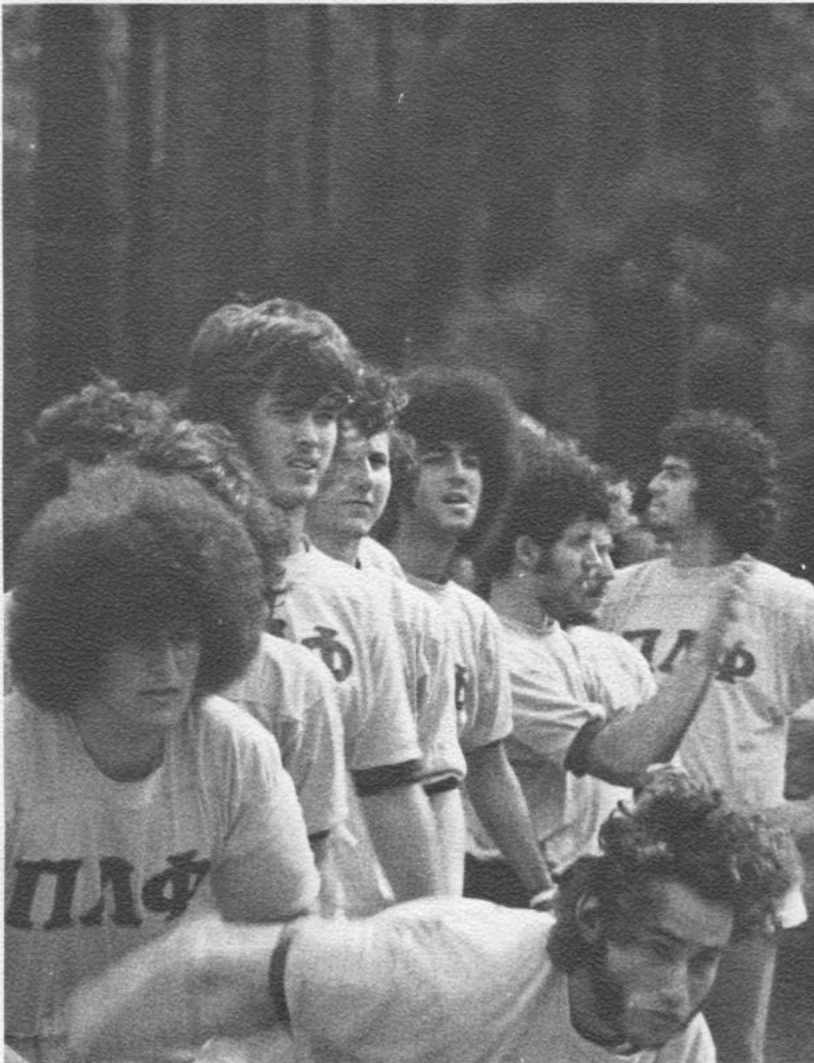

On November 13, the 1973 Pi Lambda Phi Pledge Class played their Nosebowl, and like every other Pledge Class before them, they came out as winners.

BEST SENIOR BROTHER

Robert Klausner

The highest honor a graduating Senior brother can receive is to be named "Best Senior" by the brotherhood. The recipient of this year's award is Robert Klausner.

In his four years at the University of Florida, Bob has compiled an outstanding record of service to the chapter. He has served as Scribe for two full years and also as Senior At Large.

As a leader on campus, "B. J." has been Interfraternity Council Secretary and is presently Interfraternity Council President. These activities have added to the respect with which he is regarded by the brotherhood. For his love and devotion for Pi Lam, Bob has been awarded one of our highest honors.

"B. J."

BEST FRESHMAN

Lewis Gornitz

The new brother who has best exemplified the ideals of Pi Lambda Phi is awarded the honor of Best Freshman. This year is no exception, for the award has been given to Lew Gornitz.

Showing a desire to help in all aspects of the house, "Fire Marshall Gornitz" aided the house in fire drills as well as serving in all fraternity projects. Lew represents the new breed of brother who will lead the fraternity in the years ahead. For his respect and devotion to Pi Lam, we have chosen Lew as the "Best Freshman" of the Pledge Class of 1973.

LITTLE SISTERS

Laurie, Sharon, Pam, Karen, Susan, Andrea, Sue, Wendy, Susie, Tracey, Karen, Lisa, Debbie, Roberta, Goldie, Amy, Cathy

It's often remarked that behind every good man is a good woman. In the Lammie's case, the good men are backed by outstanding women — namely the Little Sisters. In their third year of existence, the girls came into their own as a responsible and united group.

The Little Sisters have contributed in countless ways, beginning with fall rush efforts, through Nose Bowl skits and posters and on through the year with pranks and surprise parties for all occasions.

It is a common occurrence to see a Little Sister around the house, and the friendly atmosphere surrounding them is contagious to the brothers. Whether it was for a talk or a game of hearts, the Little Sisters adopted well to the ideas of Pi Lam.

The Little Sisters have expressed the desire to become an even more integral part of the brotherhood. With every new cheer they lead, with every sporting event they turn out in mass to witness, and now in a little sister athletic league of their own, the Little Sisters show the love and pride that have made them indispensable.

We are Jolly Laddies, Jolly Laddies we,
And firm united is our com-a-ra-de-rie,
So we'll all join in, to make the wel-kin ring.
While to Pi Lambda Phi we sing.

So let's join in jolly chorus,
While our Youth is still before us,
Let us ev-er joy-ous be,
Pi Lamb-da Phi in scribedin ev'-ry loy-al heart,
Fra-ter-nal friendship till in death we all do part
So we'll all join to make the welkin ring,
While to Pi Lambda Phi we sing.
